

MAY BUS TRIPS

Tuesday May 5th: Grapevine Farms Luncheon. Enjoy a delicious meal at this charming 1850s farmhouse in Cobleskill, NY, featuring unique themed rooms, a wine cellar, bakery, and a gift shop with jewelry, candles, clothing, and handbags. The bus departs at 10 am.

Thursday May 7th: Tulip Fest Tulip Tour, Washington Park NY. Lunch to follow at Orchard Tavern West. Stroll through Washington Park with City Gardener Jena Commerford as you explore beautiful tulip varieties and learn about the planning and design behind the festival's stunning displays. The tour is free. The bus departs at 10:15 am.

Tuesday May 12th: Troy Music Hall Free Noontime Concert. Lunch to follow at Capital City Diner. Pianist Findlay Cockrell returns to the Troy Music Hall Free Noontime Concerts, a series he helped launch in 1988. A longtime educator and performer in the Capital Region, he continues his lifelong dedication to music, with his annual May performance marking a beloved tradition. The bus departs at 11 am.

Tuesday May 19th: Proctor's Free Noontime Concert. Lunch to follow at Bellevue Cafe. "Marvelous May Melodies" The John Wiesner Family & Friends take the stage at Proctors for a lively and heartfelt free noontime concert. Featuring a mix of talented local musicians, this special performance celebrates community, collaboration, and the joy of making music together. The bus departs at 11:30 am.

Friday May 29th: Dinner at "Maple on The Lake", Berne NY and a Scenic Drive Through the Helderberg's to Thatcher Park. Enjoy a scenic drive through the Helderberg's with a stop at Thatcher Park's overlook before dinner at the Maple Inn on the Lake. This local favorite, set on the shores of Warner's Lake, offers a warm, casual atmosphere and classic American cuisine.

The bus departs at 4:00pm.

There is limited seating. Please call (518) 356-1561 to reserve your seat.